

DISCUSS PLANS FOR PWA ROADS IN LEE COUNTY

Officials of Townships Have Until 5 O'clock Today to Decide

Commissioners of highways of the several townships of Lee county were given until 5 o'clock this evening to register their intention of benefiting under the Works Progress administration program, at the close of the meeting held at the court house yesterday. Practically all of the commissioners and several supervisors were in attendance and at the close of the afternoon session, but five townships had indicated a desire to benefit under the program, as follows:

James Devine, Dixon township. William King, South Dixon. William Buchanan, Wyoming. James McBride, East Grove. Harry Weigle, Natchua.

Other commissioners left the meeting to confer with their township officials before entering the program, whereby Lee county will receive approximately $300,000 in federal funds. County Superintendent of Highways Fred Leake set the deadline for 5 o'clock this evening to permit the doubtful townships to register under the WPA plan.

Consider Co. Program

At the close of the highway commissioner's meeting yesterday afternoon Superintendent Leake immediately called a special meeting of the road and bridge committee for 1 o'clock this afternoon. At this time it is expected that a program will be outlined by the county officials to be submitted to WPA officials. Some of the members of the committee favored a program to grade and surface gaps in the present county highway system.

Another plan suggested was the selection of a stretch of road to be improved with a black top surface. One suggestion named the Rock Island road from a point beginning at the end of the city paving in the west end of Dixon, extending west through Nelson township and possibly continuing through Nelson township and connecting with the improved road at the west county line of Lee county and connecting with the black top road running out of Rock Falls to the Whiteside county line.

Another suggestion was for building an improved road from Binghamton, east of Amboy and continuing east, crossing the West Brooklyn spur which is now under construction and connecting with state route 70, one mile north of Compton. The plan on this proposed project called for grading and resurfacing with a black top substance.

Kidnaping Charge Against Mother of Illinois Girl Fails

Dayton, O., July 25.—(AP)—Jailed on a charge of kidnaping her daughter, Betty Jo Richards, 8, from the Rossville, Ill., home of her former husband, Mrs. Winnie Stonerock of Dayton was freed today by Judge Mason Douglas.

Mrs. Stonerock was arrested on Tuesday on a warrant obtained by the ex-husband, Jesse Richards, Judge Douglas ruled the warrant, issued in Illinois, was invalid in this state inasmuch as Ohio laws do not uphold a kidnaping charge against a mother who has taken her child.

The court ordered the child placed in the care of juvenile authorities pending the outcome of legal action which Mrs. Stonerock said she would institute to gain custody of her daughter.

Ohioan Appointed Undersecretary

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—Charles West, former representative from Ohio, who has been serving as President Roosevelt's contact man in congress, was nominated by the president today as Undersecretary of the Interior.

West was defeated last year in the Democratic primaries in Ohio for the senate nomination. He later was appointed to the federal farm credit administration and is on that organization's payroll now. As Undersecretary of the Interior he will be ranking aide to its its Republican chief, Secretary Ickes.

Missing Naval Plane Reported Safe Today

Akron, O., July 25.—(AP)—The Akron airport reported today that it had received word that the plane carrying Lieut. Com Charles Rosendahl and party to a lighter-than-air conference here had landed safely at the Middletown, Pa., airport.

The fliers explained there, that prevailing fog and a "low ceiling" prompted them to land and await more favorable conditions before continuing their flight here.

To Auction Bonds

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau announced today he would sell an additional $100,000,000 of 20-25 year 2 1/2 per cent bonds to the highest bidder next Monday.

By selling to the highest bidder, a financing method inaugurated some months ago, the treasury takes advantage of favorable government bond market conditions, and by offering its securities on "an auction" or competitive basis, it secures its loan at the lowest possible interest-carrying rate.

LEE CO.'S ROAD-HOUSES LIVING UP TO RULINGS

Sheriff Miller Finds Tavern Owners Give Full Co-operation

Road house proprietors of Lee county are abiding by the rules laid down by the board of supervisors and state and federal laws, Sheriff Ward Miller made known today. The statement came at the close of a series of investigations which have been in progress for several days during which all of the road houses of the county have been visited, unknown to the owners and operators.

According to Sheriff Miller, the road houses which are located principally in Dixon township, are cooperating in the enforcement of the county board's rulings. "Cheating or chiseling" is not being practiced in any of the places which have been investigated and the hours set down by the supervisors during which beer may be sold are being lived up to. The investigation was reported to have disclosed the fact that "spiking" of near beer was practiced in very few instances after the closing hour. This, however, was the most serious objection found throughout the investigation and was confined chiefly to but one or two places, it was stated.

Sheriff Miller commended the road house owners and operators for their cooperation in abiding by the rules laid down by the county board and contained in a resolution which was adopted by the supervisors at the June meeting when longer open hours were sought by the organization of road house owners. Lee county's road houses at the present time and under the present system of operation are the best operated in northern Illinois. Sheriff Miller declared at the close of the investigation which has just been completed.

Told Kidnaping Tale to Get Name on Front Pages of Newspapers

Columbus, O., July 25.—(AP)—Robert C. Byers, 42, Columbus sales counselor, confessed to Thomas A. Scully, chief of detectives, today that his story of being kidnaped and held prisoner near Cleveland was untrue. He said he told the story to Cleveland police last Friday to win a bet that he could get his name on the front pages of newspapers within 72 hours at a cost of less than $100.

Immediately after Byers informed newspapers of the hoax, he was summoned to the office of Scully. Asked if he would place a charge against Byers, Scully said "I'm listening to his story now and will decide later."

Cleveland police officials said they would file a charge against Byers there if a charge was not lodged against him here.

ADVERTISING FALLS OFF

New York, July 25.—(AP)—Advertising for the month of June registered a decrease of 2.3 per cent over the same period a year ago, it is shown by the general index of advertising compiled by Printers' Ink and released today. This marks the first time that any month of 1935 has suffered a loss as compared with the corresponding month of 1934. The index figure for June stands at 78.2, a decrease of 3.7 per cent as compared with the preceding month. June normally shows a decrease as compared with May.

Manless Marriage in Kansas Has Given Officials There a Problem

Columbus, Kas., July 25.—(AP)—Complications of Columbus' manless marriage grew more bizarre today as the girl who wore the male attire in the wedding ceremony of July 15 faced an edict to abandon her trousers or go to jail. She Alice Delores (George) Hayes, 20, spent the night in the Galena, Kas., home of her "bride," 14-year-old Margaret La Vernia Fowler, and pondered the problem of the masquerade.

The order to resume girl's clothing—abandoned 17 years ago when she was a sickly child—came from Police Chief Al Manes of Picher,

NEW ROUTE FOR HIGHWAY NO. 71 IS POSSIBILITY

Difficulties in Securing Right of Way May Bring New Routing

A possibility that a new route for state highway, route 71, to be constructed across Lee county from Speedway corners, west to state highway, route 2, may be sought, was the expression of County Superintendent of Highways Fred Leake today. The process of obtaining right of way releases had not progressed at all satisfactorily, it was stated, and the unnecessary delay brought about the announcement that a new route will probably be sought.

Since early in the summer, highway commissioners of Viola, Bradford, China, Lee Center and Amboy townships have been attempting to secure releases for a 100 foot right of way across what is known as the Swamp road. At the west end of the proposed route approximately four miles of new right of way is necessary and it is at this section that the greatest difficulty is being experienced. It was estimated that approximately $40,000 would be necessary to purchase the necessary routing, this sum to be paid by the five townships through which the proposed extension will be routed.

May Call Election.

Highway Commissioners Ben Flint of Amboy, George Freedhoff of Lee Center and Horace H. Dyas of China townships, met with Superintendent Leake yesterday afternoon to discuss the situation. In Amboy township, it is reported, there is a possibility of calling a special election to vote on a bond issue proposition to underwrite the amount necessary to purchase the right of way in that township. There was said to be strong opposition to bonding the township to this extent in paying right of way claims, which in some instances were said to be exorbitant.

The present swamp road extending from Speedway corners where the proposed new route will cross the Meridian highway, state route 70, and U. S. route 51, provides a width of 66 feet which must be extended to 100 feet. From Landau's corners to the point where the survey connects with state route 2, three miles north of Amboy, a complete new right of way is necessary through farms for a distance of about four miles.

The road and bridge committee of the board of supervisors were in session at the office of Superintendent Leake this afternoon and the general opinion was expressed that unless some action was taken at once that a new survey would probably be made, changing the present proposed routing of the cement highway across the county.

SWAMP SLAYER MAY HAVE LEAP-ED INTO RIVER

Chicago Prosecutor Believes Mrs. Evelyn Smith Suicided

Assistant State's Attorney Francis McCurrie expressed the belief today that the person who leaped into the Chicago river last night was Mrs. Evelyn Smith, who with her Chinese husband, Harry Jung, was named in an alleged confession by Mrs. Blanche Dunkel as the hired slayer of Ervin Lang.

McCurrie said he might ask the coast guard to drag the river all the way to Lockport, Ill., 25 miles southwest, in an effort to recover the body. He said his request would depend upon a conference with Sergeant Thomas Kelly of the State's Attorney's police.

McCurrie said his belief the person may have been Mrs. Smith was based on reports that she sometimes dressed as a man, and in the pocket of a coat left on the bank were newspaper clipping telling of Lang's slaying.

Lang was slain nearly three weeks ago and his body, the legs severed, was thrown into a swamp near Hammond, Ind.

Truck Driver Tried to Evade Payment of Fine: Is Brought In

Police are continuing their drive against speeders and violators of traffic ordinances in the state wide campaign being conducted in Illinois to lessen the number of accidents and fatalities. Several arrests have been made during the past few days and in each instance the violators have been fined in police court.

Arden Ecklor, a truck driver, was arrested this morning by Patrolman Richard Pomeroy, who took him directly into police court for a violation. The officer had instructed Ecklor to report at the police station when he found the truck blocking traffic in Commercial alley between Hennepin and Peoria avenues. Instead of driving to the city hall, Ecklor started west out of town and was taken into custody on West Everett street. He paid a fine of $1 and costs when arraigned in police court.

Among the list of offenders in police court this morning was Ivan Nehring of this city, who was charged in a city warrant with the operation of a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition. Justice W. T. Terrill assessed the minimum fine under the city ordinance, amounting to $25 and costs, in default of which Nehring was sent to the county jail.

Perfect Method to Produce Purified Vaccine at Purdue

LaFayette, Ind., July 25.—(AP)—A method of purifying, smallpox vaccine of its contaminations, something sought by medicine for many years with varying success, was announced at Purdue University.

The contaminations are responsible for the irritations which may accompany vaccination. They have been credited with occasional serious results, such as cases of encephalitis, or brain irritation, reported in England.

These contaminations are mostly proteins which are part of the vaccine taken from calves for medical use. The Purdue announcement says that as much as 85 per cent of the foreign protein is removed. The purified stuff, it is added, appears to possess immunizing power equal to that of the vaccine in common use. The purified substance is as clear as water.

The method was perfected in five years' experiments by Dr. C. A. Behrens and F. A. Neilsen.

Lee Salesman Hurt When Car Left Road

(Telegraph Special Service) Lee, July 25.—Ernest "Red" Olson, well-known automobile salesman employed at the Wrigley garage in Lee, was painfully injured Tuesday afternoon when a new car he was driving went into the ditch near Lee. He was removed to the Waterman hospital where he received treatment for a broken nose and numerous cuts and bruises. He was to be removed to his home later in the day.

Olson is reported to have been driving around a curve in the road when he momentarily lost control of the car and it skidded into a deep ditch alongside the highway. No one was riding with him at the time and the car was quite badly damaged.

TO EXPLAIN WPA PLAN

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, Works Progress Administrator, left today for a six-day speaking tour to explain the $4,000,000,000 work relief plan to middle-western college students. His itinerary includes Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Ill., July 31.

Wages Increased

Rochester, N. H., July 25.—(AP)—Three woolen and worsted textile mills in this area, including the Cocheo Woolen Company where a strike has been in progress since May 27, today announced voluntary increases in wages, ranging from five to 15 per cent.

The increase affects about 800 employees. The Wyandott Worsted Company and the Gonic Manufacturing Company, where there was no labor trouble, were the other plants to boost the contents of pay envelopes.

ELSIE JANIS IS BADLY INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Entertainer's Auto Crashed Into Parked Truck Last Eve

East View, N. Y., July 25.—(AP)—Elsie Janis, severely injured in an automobile accident, slept quietly today in Grasslands hospital.

The resident physician of the hospital issued this bulletin: "Patient responding favorably to treatment. Sleeping quietly. Condition serious but slightly improved as compared to that on arrival at hospital. Not immediately critical."

The auto in which the famous entertainer was riding with her husband, Gilbert Wilson, struck a parked truck on the Sawmill Parkway last night. Police said there were no parking lights on the truck and that it was screened from view by trees.

Charles Coughlin of Yonkers, N. Y., owner of the truck, and his two helpers were held by Greenburgh, N. Y., police. Patrolman Charles Stein said he warned the two helpers to put on parking lights 20 minutes before the accident.

Miss Janis suffered brain concussion, a deep gash in the back of her head and loss of blood. Physicians said a blood transfusion might be necessary. They planned to take X-rays as soon as her condition permitted.

The singer's husband suffered slight head injuries.

"She is in a very good frame of mind, and she is taking this like a very good soldier," the doctor reported.

As for the prospects of the actress, whose name was a by-word in entertainment among the soldiers overseas during the World war, the doctor emphasized that no prediction could be made for a few days.

At the moment, he said, a fracture of the left collar bone, a gash on the back of the head and loss of blood seemed to be the extent of her injuries. She was conscious and cheerful after a sleep induced by sedatives.

Argentians in Duel; Neither One Injured

Buenos Aires, July 25.—(AP)—Argentina's minister of finance and a senator fought a pistol duel today, but each missed with his single shot and they left the field unscathed.

Federico Pinedo, the cabinet member, and Senator Lisandro Delatorre, the principles, met as a result of an angry debate two days ago in the senate chamber. It was during that debate that a senator was slain by shots from the gallery.

American Woman is Missing From Steamer

Shanghai, July 25.—(AP)—The United States consulate revealed today that Mrs. Clara Smertenko, instructor of Greek and Latin at the University of Oregon, disappeared on the night of July 20 from the steamer Taiyo Maru on her way to Shanghai from Hongkong.

Mrs. Smertenko was touring the Far East. Her passport stated that, in the event of an emergency, Fred Millard, Chicago, was to be notified.

Funeral of Miss McFayden on Friday Morning

Funeral services for Miss Catherine McFayden, who passed away at her home 705 Second street Wednesday morning will be conducted from the late home Friday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Patrick's Catholic church at 9:30. Rev. T. L. Walsh will officiate and interment will be in St. Patrick's cemetery at Amboy.

Judge Sheehan Suffers Heart Attack Today

Circuit Judge Frank Sheehan of Galena, who has been ill, was reported better until this morning when he suffered a heart attack and a relapse which returned him to his bed in a hospital in Duquenne. The judge's many friends throughout the circuit hope for his speedy recovery.

HOPE TO SECURE THOMPSON JURY THIS AFTERNOON

Peoria Prosecutor Exhibited Speed in His Questions Today

Peoria, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—State's Attorney Edwin C. Champion challenged peremptorily the panel of four men questioned this morning in an effort to complete the jury which is to try Gerald Thompson for the slaying of Mildred Hallmark.

Only nine peremptory challenges remained to be exercised by the state. The prosecutor offered no explanation of his action in this wiping out the prospective panel, but immediately had four more summoned to the jury box and once more started his routine questioning.

Thompson looked more cheerful than he did at the conclusion of yesterday's session. His gaze drifted about the courtroom but always returned to a window from which he can see the cafeteria where the 19-year-old girl for whose death he is on trial worked as hostess.

Attorney Shows Speed

As the prosecutor sought among the tallmen for a panel, he showed his desire to speed up the case. Heretofore his questions had been propounded in a slow and deliberate manner, but today the words seemed to fairly tumble from his mouth.

Champion finished his questioning in a short time and tendered the panel to Ren Thurman, defense counsel.

Hopes for completing the jury before noon dimmed when Thurman asked that one of the four be excused of his fixed opinion. Judge Joseph Daily sustained him.

Thurman exercised his eighth peremptory challenge just before the noon recess and within a few minutes asked that six men be excused for cause since they had expressed fixed opinions.

Hope for Jury Today

Statements from both attorneys, during the noon recess, were that both hoped to complete the selection by tonight.

"I challenged the entire panel this morning," Champion explained, "because I didn't feel they would make good jurymen in this case."

"To me," Thurman said, "the eight jurors selected so far seem men who understand this defendant is fighting for his life against odds seldom faced in an case of this kind. I'm seeking men who will not be prejudiced against my client on account of what they have read and heard."

Was Nervous Yesterday

For the first time publicly the youth's nerves seemed to be loosening toward the close of the third day of his trial yesterday. Watched almost constantly by the spectators, he shifted uneasily in his chair, his glaring eyes strayed from the faces of prospective jurors, sometimes to return the crowd's glances.

Some of the spectators, police said, were girls whom the state also alleged suffered at his hands Monday, but each missed with his single shot and they left the field unscathed.

From the morning after the discovery of the girl's body in a ditch of a cemetery June 17, when Thompson signed a "revue" declaration along with other fellow workers of the girl's father to hunt the killer, he has maintained an amazing calm.

Joliet Police Holding Double Murder Suspect

Joliet, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—Police Chief N. J. Fornango said today he was detaining William Laughlin, 35, for questioning about a double slaying July 13 at Tuscola, Ill.

Fornango said Laughlin, a diver working on a deep waterway dredging project, was held at the inquest of Tuscola authorities who were en route here to question him about the deaths of John and Edward Burmeister.

Laughlin declared he had never been in Tuscola and did not know where it was.

Margaret Waley, Enroute to U. S. Prison, Denounces Her Husband

Chicago, July 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Waley bitterly denounced her husband today and asserted he "didn't get a third what he deserved" for his part in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping. The 19-year-old wife of Harmon Waley, who was given a 45-year sentence for the kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser, Jr., nine-year-old son of a wealthy Tacoma, Wash., lumberman, arrived here en route to the Federal women's reformatory at Milan, Mich.

She was in custody of U. S. Mar-

Mystery Solved

St. Paul, July 25.—(AP)—Mrs. A. A. Smith has solved the mystery of her missing two-story house, but why it was moved nearly 10 miles north of its original site is a question for which city officials are seeking an answer.

The house, located in the Midway district here, was condemned by the city because of improper sewage disposal, but Mrs. Smith said the condition was corrected.

Yesterday she went to look at the house—and found weeds growing where it once stood. Investigation disclosed the city had sold the 28 by 14 feet building to a wrecker for $10, and the latter had it moved.

INSPECTION OF DIXON AIRPORT IS ANNOUNCED

State Committee to Give Field "Once Over" Very Soon

State airport commissioners will inspect the Dixon air field in the near future, said Dement Schuler, chairman of the local airport committee, after receipt today of an acknowledgment of a check covering license fees for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935.

The Illinois Aeronautical Commission has also requested the Dixon airport to supply information with other Illinois city airports for compilation of an aviation directory to be published soon. Data on acreage, shape of field, landmarks, and other essential information has been requested. The aeronautical branch of the Department of Commerce at Washington, D. C., has also sent forms to Dixon airport officials for them to fill out, the information to be used in placing Dixon on an official rating with the department. A contour of the field was also asked.

Hay is being mowed by Reynoldswood farm at the airport and will be used by the farm. A field unit and tank installation have recently been completed at the local field. Dixon's airport is one of the few small city airports that boast such equipment. The tanks are entirely underground, obviating the necessity of standing tanks above the ground which might be dangerous to airplanes, and an electric pump with a bell signal supplies the hose with gas used to refuel the ships. The work was done by skilled labor except the excavation for pipe lines in which relief labor was employed.

Engineer Had Idea Which Saved Life

Danville, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—Although he escaped death in a packing plant cooling chamber only by slipping through a concrete wall last Saturday night, Eli Henry, refrigerating engineer, was so unconcerned about this experience that the story didn't get around town until today.

Henry was alone in the plant when he entered the cooling room to check ice machines. When he closed the door, the handle broke off and he was a prisoner. The temperature was freezing. He shut off the ice machines.

Then he had an idea. Seizing a meat hook he started chipping away at the concrete chamber wall. Four hours later he had knocked out a hole large enough to let him reach through the wall and unlock the door from the outside.

He started the ice machines again and resumed his regular duties.

REPORT OF BANDITS.

Tokyo, July 25.—(AP)—The Hsinking correspondent of Renzo (Japanese) news agency reported today that 500 alleged bandits killed five Japanese and a number of Chinese Tuesday afternoon at Naimanchi, about 145 miles northwest of Mukden.

He reported that the Japanese and Manchoukuan police were unable to defeat the raiders and that a number of persons were kidnapped. Both Japanese and Manchoukuan troops and airplanes, he reported, had been sent in pursuit.

NEW DISCORDS IN TERRE HAUTE STRIKE SECTOR

"Kayo" Bombs Used by Guardsmen to Break Up Mob of 3000

Terre Haute, Ind., July 25.—(AP)—Renewed disorders involving striking workmen spurred National Guardsmen to strict enforcement of martial law regulations in Terre Haute today.

A tense situation prevailed about the mill of the Columbian Enameling & Stamping Company, where presence of 323 Guardsmen produced scenes resembling an army camp. Although the general strike that paralyzed business for two days has ended, 600 mill employees remained on strike while federal conciliators continued attempts at mediation.

Soldiers with bayonets on their rifles met with resistance when they tried to disperse a crowd of 3,000 persons milling about Twelve Points, a business district in the industrial section near the Columbian plant last night. A few "kayo" bombs which discharged nauseating gas finally broke up the gathering, which is forbidden by Governor McNutt's proclamation of military rule.

One Woman Injured

One injury was reported, Mrs. Edward MacBeth, 33, grabbed a soldier's bayonet when he ordered her to move on, and was severely cut on the hands. Arrest of 11 persons brought the total detained by the troops since the strike started to 180.

Guard officers immediately ordered all beer taverns to close, and directed the soldiers to enforce the regulation against assemblage. Col. Albert H. Whitcomb, second in command, said 500 to 600 guardsmen are on duty and added, "I do not anticipate the removal of more troops unless things quiet down considerably."

Private Guards Remain

Private armed guards, whose presence in the Columbian plant led, union leaders said, to the calling of the general strike Monday, remained at their posts on the company property. Strikers' demands for their removal constituted one of the points which federal conciliators Charles L. Richardson of Washington and Harry E. Schreck of Chicago sought to settle in their mediation conferences.

Most of the 22,000 union workers who participated in the labor "holiday" that tied up transportation and delivery service and closed retail stores, resulting in the military control of the city, had returned to work. Factories and business houses resumed nearly normal activity.

Prisoners Released

Release of prisoners taken by the military has been started. Among the first released were two faculty members of the Indiana State Teachers' College. The two, Prof. W. W. David, history teacher, and Prof. J. R. Shannon, teacher of psychology, were taken into custody by Guardsmen who said they violated the rule against assemblage.

Capt. Garrett Old, after a hearing, absolved Prof. Shannon of intent to violate the military regulations. Prof. David said he was attempting to obtain first hand information for use in sociology teaching when Guardsmen captured him.

Heir to Oil Millions Victim of Pneumonia

Southampton, N. Y., July 25.—(AP)—Col. Henry Huddleston Rogers, inheritor of one of the large fortunes made in the Standard Oil companies, died today at the Southampton hospital.

He had been ill since last October.

Rogers, who was 55 years old, was taken to the hospital two days ago, from his Southampton summer home, for a blood transfusion.

His condition, yesterday and last night, steadily became worse.

Col. Rogers, son of the late H. H. Rogers—a vice-president of the Standard Oil companies for years and a chief aide for John D. Rockefeller in the development of a vast concern—suffered pneumonia last October.

Roosevelt Fails to Break Deadlock

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's personal intervention failed today to break the congressional deadlock over excluding private pension plans from his social security program. Despite the president's expressed opposition to the proposed exemption, house and senate conferees were unable to reach an agreement on the disputed amendment and recessed until next week when another attempt will be made.

House conferees not only refused to accept the amendment by Senator Clark (D-Mo.), to exclude private pension systems, but declined to consider compromises

"YE DO IT UNTO ME"

By Joseph Fort Newton
OLDSTON wrote a great little story about a shoemaker, named Martin, who lived and worked in a basement. Out of his narrow, dingy window, he could see only the boots and shoes of the neighborhood—not an inspiring out-

As Martin grew old he was left alone; the members of his family were dead. Like many lonely and forsaken folk, he turned to the Gospels for relief and help. Every night, when his work was done, he would light his tiny lamp, and read the words of divine comfort.

Year after year he read, until the disciples of Jesus were like old friends. But a great longing grew up in his heart. "If I could only see the Master!" He envied Peter and James and John because they actually saw Jesus and talked with Him day by day.

One day a poor man came into his shop, cold, hungry, barefooted. Martin gave him tea and food and spoke kind words to him. He found a pair of shoes and fitted them on his bare feet, and the man went away with renewed strength and hope. Martin went on with his work.

A little later there was a squabble in the street, and Martin went out to see what it was. A boy had stolen an apple from a poor old apple-woman, and she was angry. Martin turned it all into a joke, and they went away together laughing, the boy carrying the basket. That night, as his custom was, Martin lit his lamp and began to read the Gospels. And the old wish came up in his throat. "If I could only see my Master!" Suddenly he felt that he was not alone in the room. He distinctly heard a voice saying:

"Why, Martin, don't you see Me? Don't you know Me? I have been with you all the day long. Inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye do it unto Me."

A great joy welled up in the heart of Martin; his wish had been fulfilled. He knew that his Master had visited him that very day, and that he failed to know Him but he had not failed to be kind!

TO PRESS LINEN SUITS

When pressing linen suits of coats first iron the inner pockets and the heavy seams which take longer to dry. This will avoid creases when the garments are given the finishing touches.

W. C. O. F. TO MEET THIS EVENING

The W. C. O. F. will meet this evening at 7:30 at the K. C. Home.

Application for Relief Gets Old Dancer Stage Job

JESSIE REED

Chicago, July 25—(AP)—Jessie Reed admitted today she was "scared" on the eve of her return to the footlights after a "run" on the relief rolls.

"Yes, I'm scared," whispered the woman who danced in Ziegfeld shows from 1919 to 1924 and won fame as the "highest paid chorine on Broadway."

Miss Reed was relaxing after a practice session and her hands trembled as she lifted a cup of coffee. Nine years off the stage, she said, leaves one's muscles less pliant.

"Smoke seems to be getting into my eyes," she murmured with a far-off look which may have gone back to the days when long lines of attentive men awaited her and she had jewels, clothes, flowers and public acclaim.

"Turning to the present, when she found herself asking aid because she could not pay her $5 weekly room rent, she said:

"I'm not trained to do anything but look beautiful."

The story of her application for relief, disclosed by newspapers, brought an offer from a large theatrical organization. She will open in the "loop" tomorrow.

Of the sudden change in affairs, Miss Reed said:
"I'm confused. I'm afraid. Things are so different than when I left the show business in nine years ago. The audience may be expecting too much."

Tea for Mrs. Emerson Whithorn Was a Delightful Affair

Mrs. Z. W. Moss entertained at her charming home, Whithorn, Wednesday afternoon with a delightful tea from 3 to 5 o'clock, honoring Mrs. Emerson Whithorn of New York, the former Pauline Reynolds, sister of Mrs. J. G. Raiston, of Dixon, who is a guest at Reynoldswood, this summer.

The large number of guests were happy to again greet Mrs. Whithorn, after her absence from the city. There were 80 present.

The attractive home was cool and fragrant the hot July day with a profusion of lovely garden flowers from the adjacent grounds.

The table in the dining room at which Mrs. Warren G. Murray and Mrs. Eustace Shaw presided was very charming. A large flower centerpiece with blue delphinium and pink roses predominating, was the main decoration. Elaborate refreshments were served.

Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Whithorn and Miss Lucia Dement were in the receiving line. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. C. J. Rosebrook, Mrs. Eustace E. Shaw, Mrs. W. G. Murray, Mrs. H. U. Bardwell and Mrs. E. N. Howell.

Noted among the out of town guests were Mrs. Louise Rugg of Memphis, Tenn., who is visiting her sister, Miss Lucia Dement; Miss Marion Davies of New York, who is vacationing with relatives and friends in Dixon, and Mrs. John Stager, sister of Mrs. Moss.

At 7 o'clock the ladies enjoyed a tempting dinner, completing a happy day.

'Round-up' at C. Golf Enjoyed by Golfers

The lady golfers of the Dixon Country club had a "round-up," yesterday, playing from 1 o'clock on, twenty-one enjoying the day at golf.

For the first flight Mrs. Wilson Dysart received the first prize and Mrs. Lloyd Davies won a prize for low putts.

In the second flight Mrs. Alma Coss won the first prize and Mrs. Morton Recknitz won the second.

Miss Maxine Rosenthal won the first attendance prize and Mrs. George Beier won the second attendance prize.

At 7 o'clock the ladies enjoyed a tempting dinner, completing a happy day.

PAROLE SYSTEM FAILS WHEN IT IS ABUSED
J. Edgar Hoover, director of those "G-men" who have made such a notable record of late, has earned the right to be listened to with serious attention whenever he speaks his mind about crime problems.
His recent attack on the evils of the parole system, therefore, is not the sort of thing that a believer in an enlightened penal system can afford to laugh off.
Mr. Hoover told the International Association of Chiefs of Police that America's lack of a strong parole system is a "ghastly farce," and demanded an end to the common practice of making paroles, probation, and commutation of sentences easy to obtain.
That the parole system in this country has been abused shamefully is beyond question. That an officer of Mr. Hoover's standing and experience should center a hot fire upon it merely confirms a long-standing suspicion.
Yet we should be exceedingly careful to see to it that the criticism falls where it really belongs—on the men who have abused the system, rather than on the system itself.

Basically, the parole system is an intelligent and humane part of enlightened criminology. It seeks to recognize the fact that the punishment ought to fit the criminal rather than the crime. Of two house-breakers, for instance, one may be a vicious thug who deserves to stay in prison for life while the other may be a man whom society can safely release after a brief period. The parole system is simply an attempt to adapt the penal machinery to such divergent cases.

But any social instrument is, in the long run, just as strong as the society which tries to make use of it—and no stronger.

If society, for instance, fills its chief offices—its governorships, its mayoralities, and so on—with self-seeking politicians who are in public life solely for what they can get out of it, then no one need be surprised if the instruments which these men handle are debased and perverted.

If our use of the parole provokes such a man as Mr. Hoover to righteous indignation, the fault lies with the persons who operate the system. And that, in turn, means that the ultimate fault is our own for putting them in office in the first place.

The remedy is not to junk the parole system, but to elect to office men who will have honesty and intelligence enough to make it work the way it ought to work.

CONGRESS WANTS REST, BUT SO DO WE ALL

It is a very hot day in the spot where this article is being written. The thermometer stands at 92 outside and it is going to go higher pretty soon. There isn't any wind, and if there were it would be a hot one. Like everyone else who is at work, the writer feels warm and uncomfortable.

All of this is put down, not in the belief that the general public is especially interested in working conditions in newspaper offices, but because it somehow is a gentle reminder that our congressmen and senators are also suffering from the heat.

Washington dispatches are full of sad details about the weather in the capital. We read that congressional nerves and tempers are getting all warped out of shape with the heat, that a senatorial medical expert is shaking his head sadly over the possible results, and that Congress as a whole wants to wind everything up quickly and get home.

It is easy to sympathize with anyone who is too warm. And yet it is no more than fair to rise and remark that congressmen are not the only people in that predicament these days.

After all, the Capitol building is nicely air cooled. Congressmen may have been working steadily ever since January—but what of it? Joe Doakes, back home, has been working steadily ever since the fall of 1921—and he hasn't had a spacious, air-cooled chamber to work in, either, nor does he drag down any $10,000 a year for his pains.

The kitchen of a big bakery is not a cool place these days; neither is a railroad roundhouse, nor a gasoline filling station on a sun-baked corner, nor the operator's corner of a steam shovel, nor the space behind the counter in a 5-and-10, nor a hundred other places where the constituents of congressmen earn their daily bread.

Congress may find Washington hot. So do all the rest of us find the places where we work. It would be nice if we could suddenly vote ourselves a vacation, to run until the first of January; but we can't do it, and it is a little bit hard to work up very much sympathy over the plight of the legislators.

To put it more concisely, these wails about the sufferings of Congress are a pain in the neck. Our solons aren't suffering from the heat half as much as the rest of us are. As a matter of fact, they have it pretty soft.

And so, if they have work to do—as apparently, they have—it would be a fine thing if they would buckle down and do it, without quite so much self-pity. Compared with the overwhelming majority of their constituents, congressmen lead a pretty easy life.

With higher employment and increasing marriages, building vacancies will decrease, rents will rise and finally construction will start.—Dr. F. A. Pearson, Cornell University.

Power has blinded the Italians. Their atrocities in Tripoli are still fresh in the minds of the Arabs.—Emir Abdullah, ruler of Transjordan.

France cannot liquidate us. We cannot liquidate France.—Adolf Hitler.

The whale that wrecked the Tinties' house remained as quiet as a mouse. It seemed to know that it had done a trick that was all wrong. Then to the sea man Goldy went. "Perhaps it was an accident," said she. "That whale is very big and also very strong."

"He bumped our new house. That is so, but, really, how are we to know that he did it on purpose? I'll just bet he's sorry, now." Then Duncy said, "It would suit me, if you would take him 'cross your knee. Why, I'll bet you can't do it. If you can, just show us how!"

This made the Tinties laugh in glee. The sea man said: "Imagine me with anything as big as that whale across my lap."

"I'm sure that he would wiggle loose and get away, so what's the use? Why, he could send me spinning, if he gave his tail one flap. However, punishments in store. The whale will know what it is for."

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

AMOS (PROPHET OF SOCIAL JUSTICE)
Text: Amos 7:7-17
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for July 28.
By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance

Amos stands preeminently as the prophet of social justice. The era in which he lived was one of prosperity. It was an age when the prosperity of the day was reflected in the ideals which influenced the people and in the easy and luxurious living of the fortunate, while the poor were disregarded and crushed.

Amos, a herdsman, or a farmer, accustomed to the simple ways and the clear vision of a man of the fields, did not see all that was happening as did those whose eyes were blinded by the pagant of prosperity. He perceived that the prosperity was based upon an unsound foundation, that wealth was being built up by the oppression and grinding of the poor, and that little value was placed upon essential justice and right.

Even in the apparent prosperity of religious institutions he saw something hollow and unsound. A wealthy age was adorning and embellishing religion with the things that satisfied its own superficial soul, but was neglecting the essential commandments of God, and the primary duties of man toward man.

Thus it was that Amos came from his simple life and his clear vision, measuring society with the plumb line, prophesying very directly the great fact that no society could live in such a way and long maintain its life.

The portion chosen as the lesson is hardly adequate, and both teachers and students would do well to devote their attention to the entire chapters 4 and 7 if not to the whole book.

It is noteworthy that Amos saw the weakness of society in his time, and the things that were greatly endangering it, when these weaknesses and dangers had not become apparent to others.

It is instructive now to look back and to realize that, during the time of our supposed prosperity a few years ago, there were prophets in our midst who were warning society in much the same way that Amos warned the people of his time.

We gave little heed to these prophets, and we are giving little heed to them today, although all that has happened during the depression years has confirmed their expressions of judgment against the selfishness and dishonesty that have had so large a part in our business and industrial life.

The Book of Amos makes vital reading for today. The foundations of a true society have not changed from age to age. There is no hocus-focus or magic by which permanent prosperity or happiness can come to a people who disregard the most elemental laws concerning honesty and fairness, man with man, and the foundations of good living in sound economics and social integrity.

In the past of man's life, as in the heart of man himself, is the revelation of a better way, if man would only give heed to it and follow it. God's laws and God's judgments mark the only secure basis of a happy and stable society.

Illinois Men Hurt in Wisconsin Crash

Dubuque, Ia., July 25—(AP)—Alexander P. Harder, Rockford, Ill., suffered a fractured neck and Leiland Davey, Elizabeth, Ill., was slightly hurt when their car collided late Tuesday near Kieler Wis. with an automobile driven by an unidentified Dubuque spice firm salesman. The salesman was unhurt. Both Illinois men were brought to Mercy hospital here.

CONFESSES MURDER

Dubuque, Ia., July 25—(AP)—Police said Tuesday that Marlo Heinz 29, confessed shortly that he strangled his six-year-old nephew, David Fox, to death while attempting to attack the boy late yesterday.

BANKERS TO ST. LOUIS

Chicago—The 1936 convention of the Illinois Bankers Association will be held at St. Louis, Mo., May 25, 26, and 27, Sidney Nirdlinger, president, announced.

PRESIDENT MAY TRY TO DICTATE TAX BILL TERMS

Opposition to Many of His Ideas Expressed in House Committee

Washington, July 25—(AP)—Surrounded by controversy, the administration's tax plan neared bill form today amid authoritative predictions that the president would have to intervene to make sure he got what he wanted.

The house ways and means committee remained on the edge of revolt against his suggestion that the measure include a graduated corporation income tax ranging from 10 3-4 to 16 3-4 per cent. One man close to the president remarked that "he may have to call them down there and talk turkey to them to get them to agree with him."

Meanwhile, the dispute over the question of exemption for charitable contributions made by corporations promised to be one of the most vigorous in the whole struggle. Roosevelt was standing by his pronouncement that such exemptions should not be allowed. His view was that the donations amounted to the purchase of good will.

Would Kill Private Agencies

Just as firmly, a representative of three welfare groups was insisting that to bar these exemptions would be a "body blow" to private welfare agencies and would mean "going back to the horse and buggy days of private charity." This opinion was expressed by Allen T. Burns, executive vice president of Community Chests & Councils, Inc.

The heads of the National Conference of Catholic Charities and of the National Council of Jewish Federations also were backing the tax exemptions. It was reported that Democrats on the ways and means committee already have voted tentatively to include such an exemption in the new tax bill.

Plan Needs 13 Votes

Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.) introduced some time ago a bill permitting corporations to donate 5 per cent of net income taxfree.

As for the graduated corporation income tax, a poll on the "principle" of such a levy was being conducted by Chairman Doughton (D-NC). He declined to discuss it, but it was reported to have shown a 9 to 8 division of the committee Democrats in favor of the idea. One other Democrat was not yet recorded. All of the seven Republicans on the committee had at one time or another indicated they opposed the suggestion.

Since the committee has 25 members any tax plan must garner 13 votes before it can be approved.

GOLF CLUB HELD UP

Chicago, July 25—(AP)—Five robbers shot the lock off the front door of the Twin Orchard golf club northeast of Bensenville on Tuesday, intimidated seven employees and four guests, and fled with $400 taken from the club safe. County highway police expressed the belief the band was the same which failed to force entrance three weeks ago.

Today, her fortune gone, Miss Norman is back in films, but as a grandma this time. The long jump from Miss Norman's "mother" days and the present is shown in the pictures above—at left, as she acted in a film with Mary Pickford, and at right, as she is without makeup, at the age of 83, in her new role.

DAILY HEALTH

MUSCLE CRAMPS IN SLEEP

To be seized while asleep, or more particularly in the early morning when one is half-awake, by a painful cramp in the calf of the leg is no pleasant experience.

Such muscle cramps are difficult to account for. It is thought that either a misdirected nerve impulse or a disordinate response to a nerve impulse directed to the muscle, is responsible for the seizure.

To appreciate the meaning of the above, we must recall that practically all muscles work against so-called antagonist muscles.

If a muscle contracts, drawing upon some lever, another set of muscles ordinarily must relax or yield. If the antagonists do not offer the correct amount of resistance, the impulse may have an exaggerated effect, and a cramping of the contracting muscle may result.

The type of muscle cramp experienced during sleep differs from the cramp which one may suffer while swimming. The latter are thought to be due to effects of the cold water on blood circulation.

The treatment for muscle cramp in sleep (the cramps usually lasting only about a minute), is friction and kneading. It is advised that a forceful attempt should be made to stretch or extend the muscles affected by the cramp.

Some forms of muscle cramp do not yield readily to this treatment, and it is suggested that in such instances the cramps are really a form of tetany, a disease marked

Radio Engineer for State is Appointed

Springfield, Ill., July 25—(AP)—Glenn E. West of Purdue University today was placed in charge of the installation of the Illinois highway police radio system.

West's appointment as radio engineer for the division of highways was announced from the governor's office. As an instructor in electrical and radio engineering at Purdue during the past five years, he had charge of the installation of Indiana's police radio system.

Bids for construction of seven broadcasting stations are being studied by West. Tentative plans are for radio headquarters at the state fairgrounds here, with other stations at Chicago, Pontiac, Sterling, Macomb, DuQuoin and Effingham.

During the 1934 season, the salmon industry of Alaska paid $2,712,336.37 to resident cannery workers and fishermen.

"GET-TOGETHER" OF REPUBLICAN PARTY AUG. 8th

The Northwestern Illinois
Members of GOP to Starved Rock Park

Streator, July 25.—(Special)—With United States Senator L. J. Dickinson, Iowa's favorite son, as the main speaker, Republicans from at least twenty-four counties in the north-central section of Illinois will gather on the historic plains of Starved Rock park on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Aug. 8th for an old-fashioned G. O. P. "get-together" meeting and rally. J. E. Hill, Streator, chairman of the LaSalle County Republican Central Committee, announced today.

The gathering, sponsored by the LaSalle County Committee, will follow out the spirit of the recent Mid-West "grass-roots" conference at Springfield, Chairman Hill explained. "That spirit was one of sincere Americanism that has but one medium of interpretation—the Constitution," Mr. Hill pointed out, "and with it will go, we hope, a re-dedication of our adherence to the principles of the Republican party as announced some eighty odd years ago."

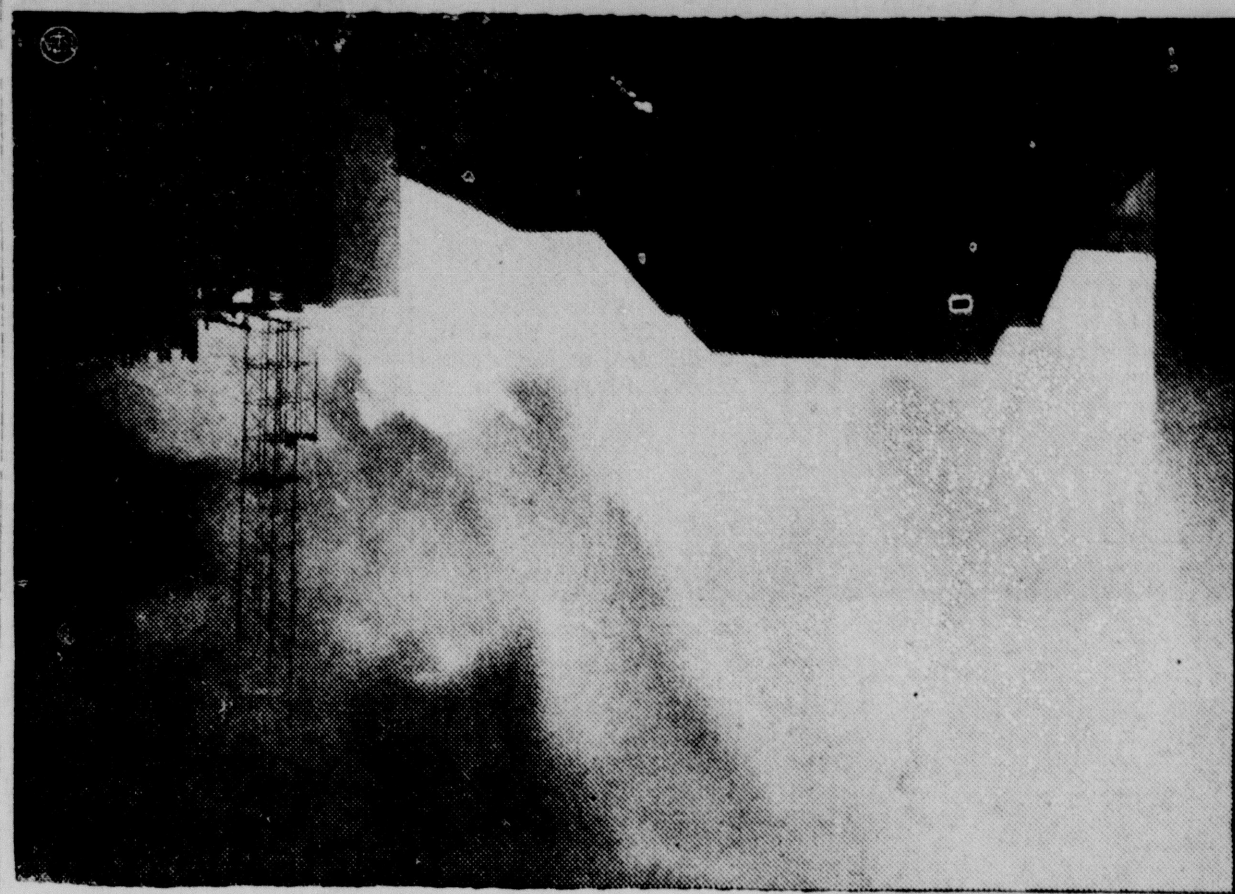

LaSalle county, one of six in the Congressional District that will share the honors of being hosts to the surrounding counties, lays claim to being the first place where the name "Republican" was first chosen for the party in opposition to the Democrat party.

First Call in 1854
The call for the first "Republican" meeting was made at Ottawa, county seat of LaSalle county, in June 1854. The historic state convention of Michigan where the name "Republican" was used was held in July of the same year.

The Ottawa call of June, 1854, was issued by Judge E. S. Leland, an outstanding Whig of his day and a friend of Lincoln who at the time was at hand for the creation of a new political party. As a result, in August, 1854, 500 people gathered on the court house lawn at Ottawa for the purpose of organizing a political party opposed to repeal of the Missouri Compromise and further extension of slavery; and the group adopted Judge Leland's suggestion that the name "Republican" be given to the new party. Six years later, it saw its Presidential candidate, Lincoln, elected chief magistrate of the nation.

The Starved Rock rally will be held a dozen miles away from the court house square where the 1854 meeting was held; likewise a dozen miles away from the site of old Fort Johnston where Captain "Abe" Lincoln was mustered out of the United States Army during the Black Hawk War of 1832 and where he immediately enlisted as a private.

FLAMES TAKE $3,000,000 TOLL IN WORLD'S LARGEST DISTILLERY

Flames took a toll of $3,000,000 taken, raging through the $3,000,000 Hiram Walker Distillery, largest in the world, in Peoria, Ill., causing damage estimated at $3,000,000. A terrific blast, one of the H-story rackhouses of the liquor plant started the most disastrous fire in Peoria's history. Firemen fought for six hours before putting the flames under control. One workman is believed dead in the ruins.

Invitations Sent Out

Invitations have been sent to all Republican organizations in the many counties making up the 11th, 12th, 13th, 16th, 17th and 18th Congressional Districts by Elmer J. Hitter, Secretary of the LaSalle County G. O. P. Central Committee.

In the afternoon there will be a series of speed boat races on the Illinois in the vicinity of the Starved Rock deep waterway dam, while games and contests for young and old will be run off beneath Starved Rock. In the evening there will be a program of free dancing and lavish fireworks.

Senator Dickinson, native of the state which he represents in the United States Senate after twelve years in the House of Representatives, will speak at eight o'clock. Twenty thousand people are expected to be in the park at that hour.

The Senator, who was temporary chairman and keynoter of the Republican national convention of three years ago, will be accompanied to the rally by a large group of Republican leaders, including Congressman John T. Buckbee, Rockford, of the 12th District. Mr. Buckbee was one of five Republicans elected to Congress from Illinois in the 1934 elections.

Illinois Corn Crop is Improved Slightly

Springfield, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—The Illinois corn crop has improved since July 1 but is still below average, while early threshing returns indicate yields of winter wheat will be lower than expected earlier, the Illinois and federal agriculture departments announced today in a special survey.

Prospects for tame hay, soybeans and tree fruits are better than average, said Agricultural Statistician A. J. Surratt.

Corn made its best gain in the west central area, the report said.

A clergyman named Ernest Blessing lives at Peters Landing, Tenn.

GOVERNOR OF MEXICAN STATE IS UNDER FIRE

Peasants Demand Re- moval of Executive of Tamaulipas

Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mexico, July 25.—(AP)—Tension created by the agrarian uprising in the state of Tamaulipas was believed eased today, although Gov. Rafael Villarreal was reported still under fire.

A force of approximately 2,000 peasants which had besieged this border city for two days in an effort to force resignation of city officials disbanded late yesterday.

This move, coupled with word from Mexico City that President Cardenas had promised a full investigation of complaints against the governor, was reported to have eased the tense situation throughout the state.

Villarreal, subject of bitter peasant opposition which ousted one governor and threatened several city administrations, expressed the belief he would be able to "dominate the situation."

He expressed his faith last night at Tampico where thousands of workers and peasants demand his removal. The Tampico municipal council also had asked the governor's removal on grounds it was unable to work with him.

The agrarians who had threatened to use force in evicting Mayor Rafael Munguia C. of Matamoros and other city officials started disbanding after federal troops and city police deployed about the administration building.

Mayor Munguia said he did not expect further trouble.

Tavern Keeper Shot It Out With Thieves

Yorkville, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—Three suspects in the attempted robbery of a tavern in Grundy county, near Gardner, were held today after their capture, single handed, by Sheriff William Maier of Kendall county.

Sheriff Maier seized the trio late Tuesday when, noting their resemblance to a broadcast description of the holdup men, he leaped on the running board of their automobile and ordered them to drive to the jail here.

A. H. Dickens, proprietor of the tavern, routed the robbers with shotgun fire and they fled without loot.

A prediction by the United States department of agriculture is that the prices of farm machinery in 1935 will be slightly higher than during the preceding year.

DEITS WHIFFS FIFTEEN MEN; BORDENS WIN

Browns Win After Piece By Rally in the Fifth

A four run blast in the seventh inning in which the entire batting order except Deits took a trip to the plate, gave the Browns softball ten a 5-0 smashing victory over the Reynolds Wires Wednesday night at Airport field. In the second game the Buster Browns spotted the Knacks Leaders a 7-2 lead and then smashed six runs home to win 8-7 in a stirring rally.

The Browns played as alertly as they played listlessly the other night against the Browns. They showed a complete reversal of form. Pitcher Deits retired one Reynolds batter after another to reach a total of 15 whiffs, and Adolf pitching gamely in the role of loser gained some consolation out of twelve strikeouts of his credit.

The winners unleashed a run in the sixth as Deits got his second hit in three trips, a single, which brought home Soup Holland who had doubled. Then came the four run broadside in the seventh.

BROWNS RALLY

Hasselberg's home run and nine other hits by the Knacks Leaders proved insufficient to quell the big stickers of the Browns team, the latter winning 8-7. Batters enjoyed a pleasant evening.

The Knacks led off with two runs in the first, Hasselberg's homer in the clean-up position bringing in Eddie Carlson ahead of him. The Browns matched this with Fordham's and Shires Miller's runs the latter doubling and then sneaking home on a wild throw from left field.

Boost Lead
The Knacks boosted their lead up to 7-2 in the third by hammering Fordham for four hits and five runs before they could be halted. Thereafter the Browns flinger kept his foes pretty well in check, permitting only three hits the remaining four stanzas.

In the third the undaunted Shoemen countered with four hits and four runs also. Downs, a potential tying runner, was stranded as Slain struck out. The Factory crew's final rally was merely postponed however, as they shoved home Nicklaus and Noakes in the fifth and then blanked the Knacks in the first of the seventh to win.

"CRUCIAL" TILTS MAY LAST UNTIL SEPTEMBER 29th

N. Y. Giants Must Meet Cards Eleven Times Before Then

Chicago, July 25—(AP)—Weary typesetters for the baseball extras might as well set up the word "crucial" and set it aside in a handy spot for the rest of the season. It's going to be a most "crucial" summer.

Figuring on three-cornered penultimate races in both major leagues, no less than 58 games of the "crucial" variety must be played between the hot flag contenders—if they stay hot—before the bands strike up and the alibis start flying September 29.

Here are the "crucial" situations:

Giants Hold Edge
National league—The Giants and the Cardinals must meet in 11 more games—six at New York and five at St. Louis, including today's doubleheader at St. Louis. To date, the Giants hold the edge, seven games to four, winning four out of six at home and three out of five at St. Louis.

The Chicago Cubs, only 2 1-2 games behind the Giants today, have eight games left against each of their rivals, four at home and four away with the Giants, five at St. Louis and three at home against the Cardinals. The Cubs lost six at Sportsman's Park. Against the Giants, they lost five out of seven at the Polo Grounds and reversed their showing at home to draw up all square with seven victories and seven defeats.

In American League
American league—The Yankees and Tigers have nine games left, five at New York and four at Detroit. The Yankees hold the edge, winning four out of seven played at Detroit and breaking even at home with three victories and three defeats, a margin the Tigers could wipe out today.

The two teams still have plenty of business left to do with the surprising White Sox, who are only four games behind the leaders and going at a steady pace with a long home stay ahead of them. The Yankees have 14 games left to play with Jimmy Dykes' men, eight in four days at Chicago and six at home; the Tigers must play them ten times more—six of them at Detroit. Chicago holds an eight to four game edge over the Tigers and is even with the Yankees at five-all.

McReynolds, Sparring With Louis, Prepares For Friday Card Here

Local Promoters May Book LeHaw For a Second Bout

Elwood McReynolds should be in shape for his five round bout with Louis Viscioni, Moline welterweight, at the Airport hangar, Friday night.

The reason—he has been working out at the training camp of Joe Louis in Chicago, with none other than the conqueror of Primo Carnera, himself. He will need to be in as good condition as possible, as Dixon fans are conscious of the fact that Viscioni is one of the toughest fighters in northern Illinois.

Perhaps the feature bout of the evening will be the meeting of William Doty, Savannah, and Maurice Stunkle, Steward. The two have battled twice in the ring and each holds a victory. Two weeks ago the Savannah pummeled the Steward boxer into defeat in one of the bloodiest bouts held this summer, after absorbing a lot of punishment the first round of the fight.

Negotiations are underway in an attempt to coax Billy LeHaw here Friday night for another meeting with Kobbelman of Tampico, the individual he kayoed so neatly in ten seconds a fortnight ago. LeHaw is booked for a fight in Tampico this week but latest reports stated Tampico managers knew of no such arrangement. At present Mike Bernodas of Moline is carded to battle Kobbelman unless the other arrangement can be made.

TIGERS BEAT YANKS, ARE IN UNIQUE PLACE

Hold Both First and Second in the Standings

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. (Associated Press Staff Writer)
Mickey Cochrane and his Detroit Tigers found themselves today in the ambiguous position of being both first and second in the American League.

After handing the Yankees a neat 4-0 trimming yesterday in the third game of their important series, their standing showed 54 victories and 35 defeats, while the Yanks had 51 games won and 33 lost. By addition and subtraction it was simple to show that Detroit was a half game ahead, but the percentages favored the Yanks .6071 to .6067.

The Giants entered today's doubleheader finale of their battle with St. Louis for the league leadership with the comparatively huge lead of 1 1-2 games. They squared the series at two-all yesterday when Carl Hubbell outpitched Dizzy Dean and got the benefit of one inning of effective hitting to win 4 to 2.

Sprang A Veteran
For the second time Cochrane sprang a veteran hurler on the Yanks and saw craft subdue them. "General" Alvin Crowder, the ancient but by no means feeble right hander, mowed the Yanks down with four virtually meaningless hits.

The Tigers stepped off on the right foot when Jojo White, the first man up, clubbed Charley Ruffing for a home run and they kept it going to the tune of 11 hits. The rest of the scoring came in the third when Ruffing's two walks and three hits brought in three tallies.

Pepper Martin, the brilliant but often erratic Cardinal third sacker, brought the ladies' day crowd of 29,000 onto its feet in the third inning when he sprinted to second base on Dick Bartell's fumble, stole third and scored on Jack Rothrock's fly to give St. Louis a 1-0 lead over the Giants. He turned joy into gloom in the seventh when, after Mel Ott had singled and Hank Leiber had doubled, he uncorrelated an epic wild heave that let both runners score and Travis Jackson reach third. Two more Giant hits wound up the four-run rally.

Cubs Slash Card Lead
The Chicago Cubs slashed the Cardinals' margin to a single game by taking their second doubleheader in a row from the Dodgers, 9 to 3 and 7 to 6. The second game went eleven innings before Ken O'Dea's homer broke it up after Danny Taylor had hit for the circuit with the bases full in the ninth, and the Cubs had replied with a two-run rally to tie the score.

Pittsburgh also won a doubleheader, beating the Phillies 8 to 6 and 4 to 3 as Woody Jensen produced a circuit swat in each game. The Indians did likewise with a great outburst of late-inning slugging that produced 33 hits and beat the Senators 10 to 6 and 13 to 8. They moved into fourth place in the American League standing ahead of the Red Sox, who took a 6 to 3 licking from the Browns.

The Reds moved into fifth place in the National, one point ahead of Brooklyn, by turning back the Phillies 5 to 4 in their fifth night game of the season.

HELEN MOODY WON'T PLAY, FOREST HILLS

To Limit Competition to Nationals and Wimbledon

New York, July 25—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody of San Francisco, who negotiated one of the most thrilling comebacks in the history of sport when she recaptured the Wimbledon tennis championship after a two-year layoff, arrived in New York today on the liner Washington and announced she would not play on the American team against a British side in the Wightman Cup matches here next month.

Flashing a captivating smile instead of the famous "poker face," Mrs. Moody said she intended to leave for the Pacific coast Monday and rejoin her husband, Fredericks Moody, and that she would not have sufficient time to return to Forest Hills, Long Island, for the international team match starting August 16.

"Does that mean you are planning to retire?" she was asked.

Is Not Retiring
"By no means at all," she said. "I told my husband I would be away two months and my time is just about up. It is probable, almost definite I'd say, that I'll come east for the latter part of August."

Unless she changes her mind, and it is obvious she doesn't intend to, Mrs. Moody probably will limit her competition to the National and Wimbledon tournaments for the

My back never bothered me in England. I found it difficult to move around fast enough when I first started in the St. George's Hill tournament. ## BANKING REFORM BILL TAKEN UP

Many Amendments to be Offered When Senate
Starts Debate

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—A banking reform bill which has been considerably revised since it passed the house May 9 finally came before the senate today with Democratic leaders predicting it would pass quickly without much more change.

But a combination of Democrats and Republican independents including Senator Borah of Idaho, were ready to press for amendments calling for a government-owned central bank and a "commodity dollar" with 1926 purchasing power. Borah estimated these fights may carry the debate into two or three weeks.

Chairman Fletcher (D. Fla.) of the banking committee merely said "it might be hours and it might be days" before the bill passed. He is in charge of the bill with Senator Glass (D. Va.), chairman of a subcommittee which revised the measure and made changes unwelcome to the administration.

Will Not Press Charges

Fletcher has ready some amendments believed to be favored by the administration, but he said he would not press them "if it threatened to hold up the bill."

There were indications that the administration men hoped that the changes they favor, if not made in the senate, can be put through in conference.

Marriner S. Eccles, federal reserve board governor and advocate of centralized control of money and credit, has said the senate bill is an improvement over the present situation, but needs changes.

New Reserve Board

One of Fletcher's proposed amendments would give a new federal reserve board of seven members exclusive control of the nation's credit through open market operations, rediscount and reserve policies.

The bill as now framed would set up an open market committee composed of the seven-member reserve board and five representatives of the 12 reserve banks. This committee could decide when and how much of the federal government's bonds were to be purchased or sold by the reserve banks.

Administration leaders believe this reserve bank representation on the committee will be reduced either by the senate or in conference to give the reserve board a firmer control.

Mrs. F. K. Rich and Louise and Mrs. Loren Mullins were in DeKalb Saturday. Mrs. Earl Wrigley, Mrs. Swan Ostewig, Mrs. Anna Boor and Mrs. Frank Childs were also in DeKalb Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Welch and sons of Herbert spent the week-end here, with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jorgenson, Jackie remaining to visit his grandmother.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Malmberg of Chicago came Wednesday to attend the funeral of his grandfather, John Ames of Shabbona, remaining here to visit for several days.

OAK FOREST

By Mrs. Lester Hoyle

Oak Forest—Two carloads of Palmyra people drove to Chicago Sunday morning and enjoyed the ball games, returning home in the night time. They were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hoyle and son Junior, Mrs. Hoyle's mother, Mrs. Ed Farster, and Robert Hoyle in one car; in the other car were Arnold McGaffey and son Robert, Burt Hoyle and Henry Hackbarth.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levan and family visited Sunday evening at the Mrs. Frank Becker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Reon Glessner and son George visited Friday evening at the Roy Plock home.

Mrs. Bertha Hoyle visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Miller and son John of Canoga Park, Calif. are visiting at present with Mrs. Miller's sister in Clinton, Iowa.

They expect to return to this locality Thursday and will spend a week in Lester Hoyle's cabin and enjoy visiting with their old neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Miller formerly resided where Glen Wisner's family now lives. Their oldest son, Donald, is employed in Los Angeles and could not come with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Person and son John Lionel of Sterling visited Sunday evening at the Fred Friedericks home.

Edmond Brooks spent Sunday at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Becker. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Missman and son Bobby were also visitors at the Becker home.

Herman Albers commenced to combine his wheat Tuesday. These are busy days for the farmer with corn plowing, hay making and grain cutting all coming together.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Glessner visited one evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. Reon Glessner.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reglin and family attended a re-union of the Hinrich families near Emerson on Sunday. Mrs. Reglin's name before she married was Hinrich.

Miss Jean Rosbrook expects to spend a week visiting at the Clarence Bothe home east of town. Miss June Martin, a cousin of the Bothes is a guest at their home.

A Chrysler car belonging to the Misses Mary and Ida Becker and driven by their nephew, George Brooks, Jr., was wrecked Sunday evening in a collision with a new Ford driven by Ray Ommen.

The accident occurred near the John Boucher home on the River road. Lester Hoyle has had his house and barn roofs shingled and the sides of the barn shingled half way up. Mr. Hoyle is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Alleged Fence of Robber Arrested

East St. Louis, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. James L. Harris, operators of a second-hand store, were charged in warrants today with receiving stolen property. They were named by Foley Taylor, "hole in the wall" negro burglar, as the persons to whom he sold part of the loot from a series of forced entries into stores. They denied the charge.

Leather can be cleaned and washed in ammonia water.

Clean Out Kidney Poisons

Wash Out Your 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes

If kidneys don't pass 3 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters may become clogged with poisonous waste and the danger of acid poisoning is greatly increased. Bladder passages are difficult, which often smart and burn like scalding water and cause discomfort.

This acid condition, brought about by poor kidney functions is a danger signal and may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

Most people watch their bowels which contain only 27 feet of intestines but neglect the kidneys which contain 15 miles of tiny tubes and filters. If these tubes or filters become clogged with poisons, it may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't run any risk. Make sure your kidneys empty 3 pints a day.

Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, an old prescription, which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

STAMPS

The SONG WRITING
QUEEN

ONLY a single stamp bears her portrait, but her country and even America sing her song today, long after her death. She is the famous Queen Liliuokalani who, upon the death of her brother, King Kalakaua, became ruler of the Hawaiian Islands in 1891. Her ill-conceived attempt to secure absolute power led to revolution and her dethronement in 1893.

But "Queen Lili" love for her homeland led her to compose what has become Hawaii's national anthem. It is Aloha Oe, or Farewell to Thee, still considered the love-liest of Hawaiian music.

Queen Lili in later life became Mrs. John O. Dominis, wife of a Bostonian who became governor of Oahu. She died in 1917. The only stamp that shows her portrait was issued in 1891.

TENTATIVE TAX ACT AGREED ON BY DEMOCRATS

Does Not Include Some Provisions President Requested

Washington, July 25—(AP)—A tentative agreement on a new tax bill to raise around $200,000,000 a year but which does not include the intercorporate dividend tax proposed by the president was reached today by house ways and means committee Democrats.

The tentative measure would put heavier taxes on all individual incomes over $150,000, inheritances over $50,000 left to close of kin, the profits that a corporation makes above 8 or 10 per cent of its capital, and on corporation income.

The tentative decision to include the last, if it is not overturned subsequently, is a partial victory for the president.

He proposed that the present flat 13 3-4 per cent tax on all corporation income be replaced with a graduated levy ranging from 10 3-4 to 16 3-4.

Range Much Narrower
Chairman Doughton (D N. C.) of the committee asserted that the range "probably will be much narrower than that—maybe from 13 1-4 to 14 1-4."

He added, too, that the Democrats had decided not to include an increase in the present one-tenth of one per cent tax on intercorporate dividends—those paid from one corporation to another.

The inheritance tax rates would begin at 4 per cent on the first $10,000 above an exemption and reach 75 per cent of that part of an inheritance over $10,000,000.

The individual income tax plan would raise from 53 to 54 per cent the present surtax on individual exemptions. The maximum rate on income over $10,000,000 would be 75 per cent against the present 59.

To all those rates must be added the existing "normal" tax of 4 per cent which applies to the first $4,000 of every taxable income.

After the Democrats had met for more than two hours, Doughton issued a statement saying:

Chairman's Statement
"We have tentatively agreed to have a surtax rate provision starting at $150,000 with graduated rates up to 75 per cent on net incomes over $10,000,000.

"We expect to have a graduated corporation income tax under very narrow limits of graduation.

"We expect to impose a moderate excess-profits tax.

"We expect to have an inheritance tax graduated up to 75 per cent on inheritances over $10,000,000, with $50,000 exemption.

"We expect to have a gift tax at about three-fourths the rates of the inheritance tax."

He personally expressed the "guess" that the bill would raise in the neighborhood of $200,000,000 a year in new revenue.

The plan was to get the things agreed upon in bill form as soon as possible so it could be put before the full committee early next week for prompt approval.

Proposed Levies
Here are some figures to indicate how much of an inheritance would be taken by the government under the tentative schedule:

$50,000, tax $400; $100,000, tax $5,500; $500,000, tax $119,600; $1,000,000, tax $309,600; $2,000,000, tax $769,600; $5,000,000, tax $2,449,600; $10,000,000, tax $5,889,600.

Gifts would be taxed about three-fourths of that amount and would be subjected to the new levies for two reasons: To prevent evasion of inheritance taxes, and to bring in revenue promptly instead of only years after an individual had died and left a fortune.

Coast Mermaids Set Records in Title Relay

Outswimming their closest competitors by a wide margin, four girls from Seattle, Wash., set a new American record of 10:37.8 in winning the 880-yard relay race (start of which is shown above) of the women's national swimming meet of the A. A. U. at Manhattan Beach, New York. Flashing their victory smiles, the winners are, left to right, Mary Lou Petty, Doris Buckley, Betty Lea and Olive McKean. Betty Lea is the new 15-year-old swimming sensation of the northwest.

INQUEST FRIDAY

Rockford—A coroner's inquest will be held on Friday in the deaths of Guenivere Fisher, 20, and Robert Mutimer, 22, former mental patients, who police said fired four shots into the girl and one into his own head in a fit of anger over repulsed affections.

Nashville, Tenn.—(AP)—Sonja Yergin, opera singer who won fame in Berlin, started her musical career as a choir singer here.

"You're standing by your previous decision?" he was asked.

"Yes," he replied.

Hearing on Removal of Chanute Field is Concluded Abruptly

Washington, July 25—(AP)—A senate military affairs subcommittee today abruptly closed its hearing on the special air corps report recommending removal of the technical school from Chanute Field, near Rantoul, Ill., to Denver, Colo.

In doing so, Senator Austin (R-Vt.), acting for Chairman Minton (D-Ind.), said he hoped to present the whole matter to the subcommittee tomorrow. Their report would then be submitted to the full committee, and possibly transmitted, Austin said, within ten days to the senate.

Only Representative Dobbins (D-Ill.) in whose district the air crop technical school now lies, appeared before the committee. He questioned Major E. B. Lyon of the War Department's General Staff concerning the report. Lyon was a member of the special air corps board, which prepared the document.

GERMAN OFFICER GETS LAUGH AT U. S. LAW MAKER

Senator King's Suggestion of Investigation Amuses Nazi Speaker

Berlin, July 25—(AP)—Nazism moved today to make its curb on "political Catholicism" complete, turning to a drive for elimination of the Catholic press.

The signal for the public campaign was sounded by the official Nazi party organ of Baden, "Fuehrer," which came out with a demand for the crushing of Catholic newspapers.

Three months to the day after Max Amann, president of the Reich press chamber, ordered confessional newspapers to devote their columns entirely either to religion or to politics—or to disappear—"Fuehrer" asserted bluntly that the Catholic press of Baden had failed to obey.

Time Limit Up Today
Amann's order, designed to monopolize Reich publications for Nazi ideas, provided a breathing spell of three months for the newspapers affected—expiring today.

"Fuehrer," charging combination of church papers and newspapers, asserted of the Catholic press of Baden:

"The space devoted to pure church matters causes impressions as if these newspapers were diocesan sheets."

A similar campaign became noticeable in Upper Silesia where church circles said the Hitler youth movement was the backbone of a drive against the Catholic press.

Laughs at U. S. Senator
A spokesman for the propaganda ministry, meanwhile, chuckled on being informed of the proposal of Senator King (D. Utah), for an investigation to determine whether the Nazi anti-Semitic and anti-church policies warranted breaking off diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany.

"Would the United States feel warranted in breaking off relations with England over the Belfast riots, or with France over anti-Jewish disorders in Algeria several months ago?" the spokesman asked. "Why the idea is grotesque."

"I'll bet some of Senator King's colleagues will be chuckling about his proposition the same as I. Tell them in America Germany doesn't feel the least bit alarmed at Senator King's threat—it is a threat."

Helmets Dissolved

Schwerin, Mecklenburg, Germany, July 25—(AP)—The political police dissolved the Steel Helmet units in western Mecklenburg, at Parchim, Ludwigslust and Waren today on the grounds of subversive activity.

An official communique said, in part:

"In accordance with article 1 of the February 28, 1933, edict, the Steel Helmet districts of Parchim and Ludwigslust and the local group at Waren are immediately dissolved."

"In that connection, wearing of steel helmet uniforms and badges likewise are forbidden in the districts named and within the confines of the Waren local group."

"Infractions of the order will be punished as a penal offense in accordance with article 4 of the February 29, 1933, edict."

"Existing property will be provisionally seized and sequestered."

Mary N. Hobbins

The following editorial appeared in the Madison, Wis., paper at the time of the death of Mrs. Mary Hobbins, who was buried in that city last Thursday. Mrs. Hobbins' son, James, is vice-president of the Anaconda Co., and is a son-in-law of Mrs. Alice Beede of Dixon.

When in the mellowing elder years, we slip quietly from the roles in which we have played a public part in life's affairs, and younger people come to carry on, gradually our records slip from memory and active participation in this work until the establishment of the present Family Welfare association.

As a member of the state and local boards of the Federated Women's clubs, and as a director of Grace Episcopal church, in the building activities of which she had a large part, Mrs. Hobbins was also an active factor. She was content to be a worker, she was also a giver, and was appreciated for the liberality of her benefactions.

During the war, Mrs. Hobbins was a member of the state woman's council of defense, and she also gave herself to four years of intensive Red Cross work.

All told, in her active years, Mrs. Hobbins was recognized as a whole-some and generous influence on Madison's community life and social development. She wrote an inspiring page in the history of Madison.

U. S. DAVIS CUP TENNIS TEAM TO TACKLE BRITAIN

Gain Finals as Result of Victory Over German Team

BULLETIN

Wimbledon, Eng., July 25—(AP)—Wilmer Allison and Donald Budge will play singles for the United States in the challenge round against England. Joseph W. Wear, captain of the American team, told the Associated Press today.

Standing pat on the same Davis Cup lineup which eliminated Germany in the interzone finals, Wear announced that Allison would team up with John Van Ryn in doubles. Allison's straight set defeat at the hands of Baron Gottfried von Cramm in the interzone finals and his apparent lack of the stamina needed for three successive days of intense competition had led to reports that Wear would send Sidney Wood, blond New Yorker, into the fray against England as a singles replacement for Allison.

London, July 25—(AP)—Having guided America's Davis Cup squad to a decisive victory over Germany, Joseph Wear, the non-playing captain from Philadelphia, faced today a problem that might have vexed King Solomon as the team prepared to challenge England for the coveted international tennis trophy Saturday.

Wear must choose between the slightly jaded Wilmer Allison, who clinched the inter-zone tie by whipping Heiner Henkel yesterday, and razor-keen Sidney Wood of New York, to pair with Donald Budge, the California redhead, in the four singles matches against the English aces—Fred Perry and H. W. (Bunny) Austin.

He realized that no matter whom he chooses he is destined to be hailed as either "miracle man" or "bungler," depending on the outcome of the challenging round.

Request Pieces to Feature Kable Concert Saturday

Saturday evening's regular concert by the Kable Brothers 129th Infantry band, will be composed of request numbers. Captain Howard Bronson, director, has invited the music lovers to submit selections which he has assembled together to be rendered at the concert Saturday evening starting at 8 o'clock. Assistant Conductor Gerald Huffman will play the dramatic and highly difficult cornet solo, "The Volunteer" by the famous virtuoso, Walter Rogers. David Allen, a popular radio entertainer will be the vocal soloist for the evening and will sing, "In the Middle of a Kiss." The complete program for the evening's concert is as follows:

March—"Hutchins Field," Richards.
"Reminiscences of Scotland," Godfrey. (a) "Pizzicato Polka," Strauss. (Request.)

Cornet solo, "The Volunteer," Walter Rogers—Warrant Officer Gerald Huffman.
"Bolero," Maurice Ravel. (Request.) (b) Popular, "Wouldn't It Be Worth It," Livingston.

Grand Selection, "The Bohemian Girl," Balfe. (c) March, "Illinois," Woods.

Intermission
Music from "The Prince of Pilsen," Luder. (Request.) (d) Popular, "Chocolate Soldier Man," Rich. Vocal, "In the Middle of a Kiss," Coslow—Mr. David Allen.
Descriptive Fantasy, "The Forge in the Forest," Michaelis. (e) March, "Old Comrades," Teike. (Request.)

National Anthem

will be," Wear said after Budge had given the American team a 4-1 victory over Germany by turning back Baron Gottfried von Cramm in four sets. "I might not decide finally until just before the draw Friday."

The grandstand quarterbacks, who have been clamoring for Wood's inclusion, had some sound reasoning for their side. The blond New York stylist is in grand condition, having gained eight pounds since he reached England. He has been playing magnificent tennis against Bill Tilden, Ellsworth Vines, Jack Crawford and others.

With Wood taking care of two of the singles, Allison would be left free to concentrate on the doubles, which he and Johnny Van Ryn came close to losing to Germany.

On the other hand, there's the fact that Allison whipped Henkel in a much more impressive manner than did Budge after giving Von Cramm a stirring battle. The Texan looked a little tuckered in his third set against Henkel, but his appearances on the court are notoriously deceptive.

"Americanism" Day
Announced: McCormick Main Speaker

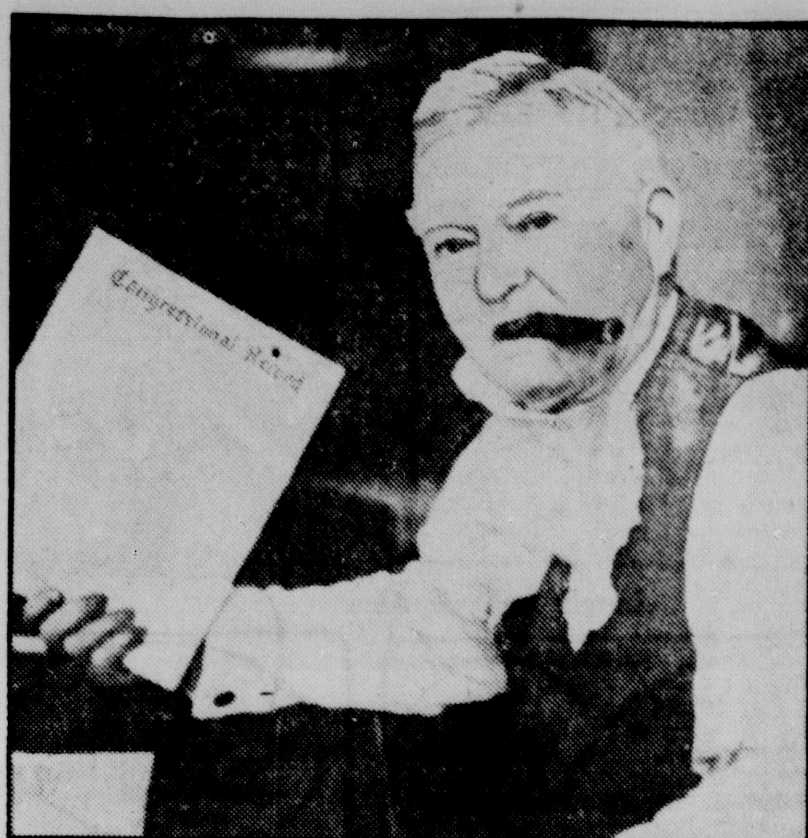

Mr. Carroll will stage a great "Back to Americanism Day" on Thursday, Aug. 1, with Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, as the principal speaker. The celebration will continue all day and conclude with a great fireworks display in the evening and the promoters expect a tremendous crowd.

Flags will be flying everywhere and visitors, if they have felt that they have not been in America for some time, will sense immediately that people still know what the American flag looks like, and what it stands for.

Invitations will be extended to former Governor Frank O. Lowden, former Congressman J. C. McKenzie, F. J. Stransky, Representative Leo E. Allen and other notables, to be present. Newspaper publishers from the surrounding country will also be sent special invitations.

Vice President Jack Garner is conducting an interesting little scientific experiment here, as he struggles to stay comfortable in the torrid Washington weather. He's proving that cool air can come from hot air, as he fans himself with the Congressional Record, his handkerchief tucked in his collar and his cigar jutting out aggressively.

CARDS REVERT TO DEFENSIVE

Giants Stiffening to Hold
On to First Place
Today

St. Louis, July 25—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals were definitely on the defensive today as they faced the New York Giants in a double-header winding up their six-game series.

The Giants appeared push-over when they took two defeats to open the series and dropped from first place for the first time since April 27. In three weeks they had lost an imposing 9½ game lead.

But sliding into second place seemed just what the New Yorkers needed to jolt them from their slump. They recovered the lead with a victory in Tuesday's nightcap and yesterday added a full game when Carl Hubbell beat Dizzy Dean, 4 to 2.

Needing both games to regain the top his team held so briefly, Manager Frank Frisch nominated two winners for action—Bill Hallahan, who pitched Monday, and Paul Dean, who won the first game of Tuesday's twin bill that, sent the Cards ahead.

Hal Schumacher and Bud Parmelee probably will pitch for New York, although there was a slim chance that Clyde Castellan may work. He has been out several weeks with a broken hand.

THINKS CUP MEN HAVE EXCELLENT VICTORY CHANCE

Seabright, N. J., July 25—(AP)—Holcombe Ward, chairman of the United States Davis Cup committee, thinks "our boys have a good chance" of winning back the elusive international trophy this year.

"I feel our chances are better than they have been at any time in the eight years we've been after it," he said today.

"The boys are in better physical condition than they've been previously, and they're a bunch of fighters who won't give up until the last point is scored."

Mercer Beasley, who coached the U. S. team in the Cup battle two years ago, said the red-headed Don Budge might be the one to turn the tide in America's favor.

Doesn't Fear Jinx.

"He's young and fresh and he hasn't the fear of the jinx that seems to have followed us over there. He's never been over and lost and a cup is just another match to him," he said.

Ward and Beasley expressed their opinions while watching the forty-eighth annual invitation tournament of the Seabright Lawn Tennis and Cricket club. The tournament was down to the semifinals in both men's and women's singles today with the survivors lining up as follows:

Frankie Parker of Spring Lake vs. Gregory S. Mangin of Newark, Berkeley Bell of New York vs. Wilmer Hines of Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn of Philadelphia vs. Gracy Wheeler of Santa Monica, Calif.; Mrs. Ethel Burkhardt Arnold of Los Angeles vs. Catherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind.

STEEL OUTPUT INCREASES

New York, July 25—(AP)—Iron Age reported today another rise of 3 points in the operating rate of the steel industry, making the current average 43½ per cent of capacity. With this and previous consecutive gains since Independence Day week ingot production has recovered all of the ground lost since the middle of May and further gains are promised, the summary declared.

The U. S. weather bureau estimates damage from hail storms in 1934 at nearly $8,000,000—heaviest since the estimated $10,000,000 damage of 1930.

CLOUDS
DO NOT BURST DURING A CLOUDBURST.
(RAIN DROPS, HELD UP BY AIR CURRENTS, SUDDENLY FALL WHEN THE CURRENT WEAKENS.)

A cloud cannot burst, since a cloud is made up of a mist of very small water particles. In still air, raindrops fall to earth as they form, but sometimes they are buoyed upward by rising air currents, only to fall all at once. Such an occurrence is known as a cloudburst.

FORMER BUREAU SCHOOL MAN IS LOBBY WITNESS

Hugh S. Magill Tells of Spending $60,000 to Beat Utility Bill

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—

Questioned by senate lobby investigators as to whether he recalled giving anyone a box just before the house vote on the utilities bill, John W. Carpenter, president of the Texas Power & Light Company, said today his eldest son, John, had given a box of cigars to Representative Patton (D-Tex.).

He added that the mysterious newspaper-wrapped package which figured in previous testimony may have been books on livestock.

Meanwhile, the house rules committee investigated lobbying for and against the utilities bill received testimony from Hugh S.
Magill, president of the American Federation of Utilities Investors, that the organization spent $60,000 in the last six months in the "interest of the millions of investors it represents."

(Editor's note—Magill was at one time superintendent of the Princeton, Ill. schools and is well known in Dixon.)

How Money Was Spent

Of this amount, he said $25,000 was spent against the utilities bill and part of the remainder against the Tennessee Valley amendments.
"I didn't give anybody a box of cigars, but my son said yesterday he gave Mr. Patton a box of cigars," Carpenter said.

He added that his son had told him yesterday about giving a box of cigars to Patton because he had invited him to go fishing.

At another time, Carpenter said Patton brought two books on livestock to the hotel for Carpenter's son and took them out again wrapped in newspapers.

Carpenter said his son gave the box of cigars to Patton a couple of days before the Sunday preceding the house vote.

Told of Parties

A man described previously by committee members as a "mystery witness" told the house group that he had been on parties attended by members of congress but denied that he had done any entertaining for them himself.

He was Bernard B. Robinson, president of the B. B. Robinson Company, Chicago investment trust firm.

Chairman O'Connor said yesterday he would be called to tell about "lavish" entertaining in a Washington hotel.

The nattily dressed and smiling young man testified freely that he was in Washington doing everything he could to help defeat the holding company bill and that Associated Gas & Electric Co. footed $6,400 of his $7,285 Washington expenses from February to June, inclusive.

Historians say the thigh wound,
which caused the death of Gen.
Albert Sidney Johnston, Confederate commander, in the battle of Shiloh, would not have been fatal had he been able to find a doctor.

LEE, OGLE BOY SCOUT COURT OF HONOR THIS EVE

Will Climax Advance- ment Round-Up at Pines Park

A huge Lee and Ogle Scout Court of Honor will be held as the climax to an Advancement Round-Up program at the Pines State Park tonight, the program beginning about 7:30 P. M.

In conjunction with the evening program several troops with parents and friends are giving picnics in the park. They are Troop 72,
Dixon, Troop 110, Franklin Grove,
Troop 83, Rochelle, Troop 69, Oregon, Troop 66, Mt. Morris. A number of applications have been received for advancement awards at the Court of Honor. The program is in charge of Enos Keithley, Lee county commissioner who will direct the colored fire opening ceremony. Seth Foster, Scoutmaster of Troop 83, Rochelle, will conduct the tenderfoot investiture ceremony.

Jamboree Scouts will receive special recognition tonight. A number of awards for Star Scout, first and second class and a large number of merit badges will be given.
Vice-president's awards will go to the three highest ranking troops in each county and also commissioner's award will be presented. Prizes for the Lee and Ogle county camporee participating troops will be tendered.

Two Scoutmasters, Clarence
Parks, and George Weyant will receive Scoutmaster's keys. Clarence Parks is Scoutmaster of Troop 14, East Jordan, and George Weyant is Scoutmaster of Troop 59, Dixon
State Hospital, and Troop 76, St.
Paul's Lutheran Church, Dixon.

Parks will be leader of the Ogle county contingent at the Jamboree and George Weyant has been selected as an alternate.

Popcorn Will be Sold by Dixon

Scouts at band concerts here the remainder of the season. Two Scouts from each troop will do the selling, and the proceeds will be used to finance two boys' trip to the National Jamboree.

On the committee in charge of the sales are William Wickey, charman Troop 76, Henry Hubbell,
Troop 72, Bud Lennon, Troop 60,
Kenneth Abbott, Troop 89, Melvin Wedlake, Troop 67, Arthur Cadigan, Troop 118.

Two young sons of Premier Benito Mussolini became officers in their father's East African air force today.

Vittorio Mussolini, 19, after a few weeks' training at an army air camp, was designated officially a second lieutenant in the air corps.
His brother, Bruno, 17, was made
a sergeant, both assigned to the bombardment corps destined for East African service.

While all blackshirt Italy continued to back Il Duce's stand in East Africa by demonstrations,
some newspapers scoffed at the reported action of a Japanese
"black dragon" society in sending a cablegram to Mussolini, asking that Italy abandon any aggressive
policies toward Ethiopia.

Jo closed her eyes, trying to think, to piece things together.
She must thank Fragonet. She must—

The nurse put a finger on Jo's slowly moving lips. "I want you to sleep now, Miss Darien. If you rest today you'll be much improved tomorrow and I'll let you have visitors." She smiled.

"I've been turning them away all yesterday afternoon and already this morning. Mr. Marsh, and Mr. Fragonet, and Mr. Barston, and—"

She stopped. "I mustn't weary you. Please go to sleep now, won't you?"

Jo nodded, her eyes closed.
She was indeed very sleepy, very tired, and she thought that if she could only sleep a little while perhaps the dull pain would leave.

that the Italian minister in Addis Ababa has made representations to Emperor Haile Selassie stating Italy is willing to resume the adjourned Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission sessions.

The commission broke down recently in the Netherlands where its members, representing Italy and Ethiopia, were attempting to reach a basis for conciliating their differences.

Conte Vinci was said to have asked the Ethiopian sovereign if he was willing for the commission to meet again, particularly for the purpose of appointing a fifth member to act as arbitrator.

However, the minister was reported to have made it plain that the commission, even in case an arbitrator were added, would have to limit itself to the discussion of incidents which have taken place on the frontier and could not include in the negotiations the question of the frontiers themselves.

No Answer Received.

It was stated that no official answer had yet been received from Addis Ababa, but that it was known the emperor was loathe to revive the commission except on a basis of an all-embracing discussion which would include the question of delimitation of frontiers.

Vittorio Mussolini, 19, after a few weeks' training at an army air

second lieutenant in the air corps.
His brother, Bruno, 17, was made
a sergeant, both assigned to the
bombardment corps destined for
East African service.

While all blackshirt Italy continued to back Il Duce's stand in East Africa by demonstrations,
some newspapers scoffed at the
reported action of a Japanese
"black dragon" society in sending
a cablegram to Mussolini, asking
that Italy abandon any aggressive
policies toward Ethiopia.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JO DARIEN, finishing her first year in college, learns her father is out of work. Jo wants a job and secures part time work to make a supply store. There she meets wealthy handsome DOUG-LAS MARSH who offers her the job of hostess at his inn at Crest Lake. Jo accepts. This causes a quarrel with BRET PAUL, to whom she is engaged and Jo breaks the engagement.

She goes to Crest Lake. Her duties are pleasant but Marsh's eccentric mother takes a dislike to the girl. BABS MONTGOM-ERY, a school acquaintance who is jealous of Jo's popularity comes to the inn. PETER FRA-GONET, film actor, and his wife are also guests.

Fragonet sees Jo on the swiming boat one day and calls her a "golden sun-tan." He tells her he is in love with her. Jo avoids him for several days. Then he asks her to go sailing. Babs Montgomery, plotting to speed boat, crashes into the sailboat and Jo is hurled into the water.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XVI

WHEN Jo opened her eyes she was gazing at the ceiling of her bedroom at the inn. For a moment she believed that the accident on the lake must have been only a tremendously realistic dream, but when she raised her head from the pillow a streak of pain shot quickly through her neck and shoulders.

She was conscious then of a figure in white moving about in the other room, and at Jo's faint gasps Miss Conley, the nurse Marsh had hired for his summer colony, hurried into the bedroom.

"You mustn't try to move yet awhile," she said, smiling down at Jo. "You had quite a jar.
It was fortunate you weren't drowned after that blow on the head."

"Was anyone else hurt?" Jo asked. "Did Babs, or Mr. Fraqo-net—"

Nurse Conley nodded reassuringly. "Miss Montgomery was a bit frightened from the shock, but she's all right this morning."
"This morning?" repeated Jo.
"Then I—I've been unconscious
all this time?"

"Since it happened yesterday afternoon," explained the nurse.
Jo brushed a hand across her forehead vaguely. She was still bewildered, and the pain in her neck and shoulders persisted dully. "And Mr. Fragonet—did you say—"

"He's none the worse for a thorough ducking in the lake.
You were the only one of the three who came off badly—and you're a lucky girl to have had someone there who could bring you ashore."

Jo closed her eyes, trying to
think, to piece things together.
She must thank Fragonet. She
must—

DANGER IN SAME-ROLL-CALL PLAN IS POINTED OUT

Illinois Legislature Sometimes Passed Unwanted Bills

Springfield, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—Objection to the "same roll call" method of passing legislation, publicly made today by the Chicago Civic Federation and the Bureau of Public Efficiency recalled one measure passed in that manner in closing days of the session which, Governor Horner hinted in his veto, demonstrated the dangers of the practice.

In the closing days, when hundreds of bills awaited action, both house and senate permitted a roll call taken on one bill to stand as the roll call on many others.

In this manner was passed an amendment to the liquor control act, which it later developed, struck from the existing act that section requiring that whiskey and gin sold in this state must be labeled as "imitation" unless they were distilled from a grain mash.

Would Kill Farm Market
Elimination of this section would permit sale of whiskey and gin made from black strap. As a result, Horner said later, Illinois farmers would be deprived of a market for millions of bushels of grain.

This section had been written into the law after a lengthy fight had been made for it by the Illinois Agricultural Association at the special session at which the liquor control act was adopted.

Despite this, scores of representatives and senators from agricultural areas—legislators who participated in the special session fight to get that section into the law—are now on record, largely as the result of the "same roll call" method of passing bills, as favoring the repeal of that section.

Federation's Objection
In expressing its objection to the practice, the civic federation said:

"This device was resorted to because of the congested calendar and the desire to expedite legislative work. It frequently happens however, that a bill is not adequately explained by its sponsors or that it contains, often unintentionally, an undesirable provision of which its sponsor is unaware. Stupid members of the legislature often scan bills during progress of a roll call, and on call of the absentees, when opportunity is given, will call attention to defects in a bill while explaining their votes, resulting in defeat or amendment of the measure."

"It cannot be gainsaid that we have reached a point in the development of democracy where our danger lies in the passage of faulty and unwise legislation, rather than in failure to enact new laws. Where bills are companion measures and inseparable in the accomplishment of a needed purpose, there can be no objection to allowing the roll call on the first bill to apply to the others. This, however, seems to us as far as this practice should be permitted to do."

In passing the bill amending the liquor control act, which was so written as to substitute another section on a different subject for that part of the present act requiring the use of grain mash, the house gave it 110 votes but but four members being recorded in the opposition.

Many of these members may have intended to vote for the elimination of the section but many of the 110 are members of the "farm bloc" or usually, vote in the interests of agriculture.

Dies in New 'American Tragedy'

Apparently the victim in a new, real-life version of Dreiser's "American Tragedy," Mrs. Alice Sherman, 23, whose husband, Newell P. Sherman, a Worcester machinist, is reported to have confessed drowning her by overturning their canoe in Lake Singletary, Mass., is shown above with Dudley Page Sherman, one of her two children, in a recent photo. Police assert that Sherman, 26-year-old choir singer and descendant of pioneer New England families, arranged the "accidental" death of his wife because of his love for a 16-year-old girl.

The Dixon Kiwanis club voted to promote interest in the new city island park.

Despite this, they, along with the others, are now on record, even though Horner found the defect and vetoed the bill as having voted for elimination of a section beneficial to Illinois farmers.

Weather Played Havoc With Long Pigeon Race

Toronto, July 25.—(AP)—Southern Ontario Combine held its largest pigeon race of the season starting last Saturday, the birds being released at Decatur, Ill., and facing a 600-mile flight to Toronto. Weather conditions played havoc with the field, 200 birds representing 30 Toronto lofts starting and only 40 having returned by last night.

POET'S CORNER

WHY?

Why do I laugh, when I want to sigh?
Why am I gay, when I want to cry?
Why does a smile on my face appear,
Like the sun through a rift of the clouds near?
Why is it when the sky is dark
And within my heart is a world of pain,
That my voice lifts out like a happy lark,
Singing in the rain.
Is it that I know, sometime, some place
Through an infinite hope, an amazing grace
That somewhere, somehow, if I seek I'll find
A wonderful joy, a peace of mind.
Faith lifts me up and bears me on
When my weary steps would lag behind.
I'll know then if I laugh when I want to cry.
That a surpassing hope, is the reason why.

REPORT BRITAIN WILL LIST ARMS EMBARGO ORDERS

New Ethiopian Minister Apparently Has Won Premier Over

London, July 25.—(AP)—Reports circulated in diplomatic quarters today that the British government has decided to permit the export of arms to Ethiopia.

These reports gained ground following a visit of Waronex C. Martin, the new Ethiopian minister, to the foreign office, but official quarters did not confirm the reports.

Martin emerged from his conference with an under official smiling broadly and seemed well pleased with his talk, although he did not comment upon it.

It was stated that the cabinet had reached a definite decision on what the British government's stand would be in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, but what that decision might be was not immediately revealed.

No Word From Il Duce

An authoritative source said Great Britain still was without definite word from Premier Mussolini on the Italian plans for next week's League of Nations Council meeting at Geneva.

It was understood that the British were prepared to discuss all questions involving Ethiopia as well as Italy, but even this stand has not shaken Mussolini from his silence.

Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin and leading members of his cabinet were represented as favoring full league action, provided other powers agree, as a last resort to avert war between Italy and Ethiopia.

Negotiations Fail

The time limit for appointment of a fifth arbitrator to the deadlocked conciliation commission expires tonight, apparently killing all hope of settling the crisis by direct negotiations.

Some circles said that Anthony Eden therefore will go to Geneva for a League of Nations Council session about July 31 empowered to announce that Great Britain is ready, if no other alternative can be found, to stand by all its obligations under the league covenant.

Political circles said Eden, an ardent champion of Geneva as a minister for League of Nations affairs, has been given virtually a free hand to present Britain's views at the momentous session.

First of Corn-Hog Checks May Go Out to Farmers in Week

Washington, July 24.—(AP)—First checks for the 1935 corn-hog contract signers may reach farmers next week.

Farm administration officials said today a start had been made on check writing that none could be delivered to farmers before next week. Those expected to go out first, however, will be but a dribble in the stream to flow to more than a million contract signers in the next two months.

Corn-hog administrators estimated that less than 150,000 contracts have been received to date from state boards of review and all of these have not yet gone through final auditing stages here ready for check writing.

It has been about three weeks since Claude Wickard, corn-hog chief, authorized state boards of review to send contracts here.

There was a flurry, caused by contracts which had been approved and held back in the states, but since then contracts have been coming in slowly until Monday when 20,000 were received here.
